National Advocacy Service for People with Disabilities:
Data Protection Notice for Users of the Service

Who are we?
We are the National Advocacy Service for People with Disabilities.
Our registered address is Level 3 Rear Unit, Marshalsea Court, Merchant's Quay, Dublin 8.
We are funded by the Citizens Information Board, a State agency, located at Georges Quay House, 43 Townsend Street, Dublin 2.
We provide an independent, representative, issue-based advocacy service.
This notice sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or from others, will be processed by us. Please read the following carefully to understand our practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.
For the purpose of the Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2018 (as amended) and from 25 May 2018, the General Data Protection Regulation (the GDPR) (the Acts), the data controller is the National Advocacy Service for People with Disabilities CLG.
Our data protection contact is Elmar Jansen: elmar.jansen@advocacy.ie

What personal information do we collect from you?
We may collect a range of personal information from you, depending on your circumstances and the services you require. You may give us personal data by:

- Corresponding with us by phone, email or otherwise. We ask you to disclose only as much information as is necessary to provide you with our services or to submit a question, suggestion or comment in relation to our services.
- Attending meetings with us. These meetings might include the provision of personal data by you, or the filling in of forms required for us to provide a service to you.
- By attending at an office where CCTV (Closed Circuit Television) is in operation.

What information about you do we obtain from others?
When you use our services, we may obtain, with your authorisation, the following categories of personal data from others:

- Records relating to your situation, for example, your file from the Department of Employment Affairs and Social Protection or correspondence from healthcare or residential service providers.
The records that we may obtain will vary depending on your circumstances and the third parties involved. In obtaining this information, we may use a variety of processes such as data subject access requests, Freedom of Information requests and a copy of your authorisation for us to access this information.

Why do we collect this information?

We collect the information in order to provide you with our services. We may use this information:

- To contact you to arrange appointments.
- To provide information and support you to understand your options.
- To assess your circumstances and to explore potential courses of action with you.
- To provide an advocacy service by engaging with third parties in relation to your situation, including public and private organisations.
- To assist you to fill in forms relating to public and social services.
- To assist you in any steps involved in accessing public or social services.
- To keep you informed in relation to your advocacy case.
- To conduct statistical analysis and reporting, for training purposes, for quality review purposes and for social policy purposes.

The legal bases for the processing of your data are:

- That you have provided consent for the processing for the provision of our services.
- Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us as the controller.
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject.

From time to time, we may also collect sensitive or ‘special category’ data in the provision of our services. The legal basis for the processing of your special category data is:

- That you have provided consent for the processing for the provision of our services.

Who do we share this information with?

We share your personal data with the Citizens Information Board and with public and private organisations in order to provide you with our services.

We attach at Schedule 1 a list of entities and categories of entities with which your personal data may be shared.

In addition, we may disclose your personal information to third parties in the following exceptional circumstances:

- If there is a risk of serious harm to you or to another person or to property
• If we are under a duty to disclose or share your information in order to comply with any legal obligation.
• If we are required to give evidence in court.
• To get legal advice or to defend a legal right.
• In the event of a disclosure relating to child abuse.

How long do we keep hold of your information?

The time periods for which we retain your information depends on the type of information and the purposes for which we use it. We will keep your information for no longer than is required or permitted.

• Where we have provided you with information and advice or once-off advocacy we will retain your information for two years;
• Where we have completed an advocacy case for you, we will retain your information for six years.

Do we transfer your information outside the European Union or European Economic Area?

No.

What are your rights with respect to your personal data?

You have the following rights:

• The right to access the personal data we hold about you.
• The right to require us to rectify any inaccurate personal data about you without undue delay.
• The right to have us erase any personal data we hold about you in circumstances such as where it is no longer necessary for us to hold the personal data or, in some circumstances, if you have withdrawn your consent to the processing.
• The right to object to us processing personal data about you such as processing for profiling or direct marketing.
• The right to ask us to provide your personal data to you in a portable format or, where technically feasible, for us to port that personal data to another provider provided it does not result in a disclosure of personal data relating to other people.
• The right to request a restriction of the processing of your personal data.

Where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent to that processing, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time but any processing that we have carried out before you withdrew your consent remains lawful.
You may exercise any of the above rights by our data protection contact at any of the contact points listed above.

You may lodge a complaint with your supervisory authority with respect to our processing of your personal data. The supervisory authority in Ireland is the Data Protection Commissioner. The website is www.dataprotection.ie.

What will happen if we change our privacy notice?

This notice may change from time to time, and any changes will be posted on the www.citizensinformationboard.ie website and will be effective when posted.

This notice was last updated on 18 May 2018.

How can you contact us?

Our data protection contact can be contacted at any of the contact points listed above.
Schedule 1

We have set out below a list of third parties with whom we may share your data.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Third party</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Any legal successors to the National Advocacy Service for People with Disabilities</td>
<td>Where the National Advocacy Service for People with Disabilities transfers its business to another company or merges with another company.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Citizens Information Board                                                 | • In the provision of ICT hardware and software, networks and network storage, case management systems, email, telephony and helpdesk services
                                • In conducting statistical and case analysis for the purposes of reporting, training and social policy
                                • In the investigation of a complaint in accordance with our complaints procedures
                                • In order to provide quality or case reviews |
| ICT providers                                                              | Where ICT services such as hardware, software, network facilities, case management systems, telephone systems or similar are provided by or maintained by a third party. |
| Archiving companies                                                        | Where we archive our files in facilities provided by a third party.                                                                                                                                              |
| Shredding companies                                                        | Where our files are securely destroyed by a third party.                                                                                                                                                         |

Depending on your circumstances, and with your authorisation, we may also share your data with other third parties.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Third party</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Private organisations</td>
<td>Where we engage with a private organisation on your behalf, for example, with a service provider.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Public bodies</td>
<td>Where we refer you to a public body or assist you in accessing the services of a public body, for example, the Workplace Relations Commission.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Voluntary organisations</td>
<td>Where we refer you to a voluntary organisation or assist you in accessing the services of a voluntary organisation, for example, the Free Legal Advice Centres (FLAC).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>